First Conviction:

December 1984 he was convicted for sexual offences by a court in the Republic of Ireland.

Second Conviction:

In January 1991, Noel Tanner was again convicted for sexual offences against adolescent boys and the following text appeared in the Cork Examiner Newspaper”

Fined for act of indecency

A man was fined £50 by Justice B. J. Carroll at Fermoy Court yesterday for committing an act of gross indecency with a male person at Pike Road, Ballinamona, Fermoy, on June 8, 1988.

Robert Noel Tanner, Crush, Glanmire was also disqualified from holding a driving licence for two years in view of the fact that a vehicle was used in the commission of the offence.

He also admitted two other similar charges involving a 13 1/2 -year-old male, and two further charges of indecently assaulting the same person.

The Justice, having considered a welfare report, remanded the defendant on bail to Fermoy Court on May 13 in relation to the four latter charges which were stated to have been committed in Mallow during June-July 1987.

A condition of the order was that the defendant remains under the supervision of the court welfare service and complies with any directives which it might give regarding the availing of medical treatment or otherwise.

The court was told that the defendant deeply regretted the offences which occurred when the treatment he was then getting was not proving a success.

He was prepared to co-operate with the court welfare service which would give him the opportunity of continuing his present treatment which was proving to be successful.
